Class Poem

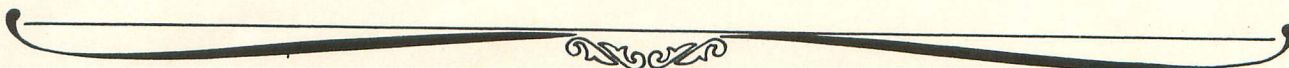

We, the Seniors of Fifty-two,
Bid a fond and sad farewell to you.
Of trouble and strife we gave you a share,
But your justice was always impartial and fair.

We now have to leave you,
And fare life alone.
Our hearts filled with courage
And confidence grown.

For the help you have given us,
For the time and the pains,
We can but humbly thank you
Again and again.

What we will make of ourselves
In the world of stress,
Is the result of the training
Of E. H. S.

J.C.H.

Class History

An eventful day, September 7, 1948, saw thirty-three starry-eyed freshmen begin their four years of high school. We elected as our class officers: Marilyn Neumann, president; Bob Higgs, vice president; and Esther Schaller, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Shelver was our class advisor.

We all pitched in and helped with the annual Oompah. Beverley Gerdon and Bob Higgs were our candidates for queen and king.

We journeyed to Weber's Gulch for our class picnic and spent the entire day eating pickles and ice cream and racing up and down the hills.

After a summer vacation thirty-three sophomores proudly ascended the stairs to begin the first of their three years in Senior High. Our class officers that year were: Esther Schaller, president; Peggy Hatfield, vice president; and Joyce Evans, secretary-treasurer.

On October 14 these thirty-three unhappy sophs were officially initiated into Senior High by the mighty seniors. We picnicked at Richmond Lake.

By the time we became juniors, several of our classmates had dropped out and our class enrollment went down to twenty-eight. Our class officers were: Jack Halder, president; Grace Bell, vice president; and Marilyn Neumann, secretary-treasurer. Miss Onsrud was class advisor.

On December 1 we successfully presented the junior class play, "Old Doc".

March 29 brought the Junior Frolics. This rollicking show was entirely under the able juniors' direction.

All of these events led up to the really big show-the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, which took place May 15. "Hawaiian Cruise" was our theme; and as we stepped off the gangplank of the "E.H.S. Cruiser" into Hawaii, we were welcomed by the music of John Taylor's orchestra.

On September 4, 1951, we entered into the doors of E.H.S. to begin our last and most eventful year. We elected as our class officers: Marilyn Neumann, president; Esther Schaller, vice president; and Grace Bell, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Ingvalson was our advisor. This year the class took over the responsibility of editing the Cardinal.

October 12 brought our first official senior duty-sophomore initiation. Then came the Senior Girls' Speech Program, in which all the senior girls took part.

Teen Canteen was very successful with Marilyn Neumann, president; Lawrence Beaver, vice president; Beverley Gerdon, secretary-treasurer; and Betty Houghton and Roger Kendall as student council members.

During the year the seniors participated in many band, choral, and dramatic activities.

The following seniors were initiated into the Keystone Society: Marilyn Neumann, Grace Bell, Peggy Hatfield, Shirley Vick, and Herbert Wagner. Esther Schaller was initiated in her junior year.

On April 30 we presented our senior class play, "The Imaginary Invalid".

On May 23 we graduated, ending our history in E.H.S.

Now we, the graduates of 1952, would like to express our gratitude for the sympathy, understanding, and help that were given to us by our teachers throughout our twelve years at E.H.S.

Class Prophecy

The calendar said that the year was 1962. It was ten years since the class of '52 dispersed ways. I wondered what had happened to my old classmates and decided how nice it would be to find out. Going into Ellendale I met two of my former classmates. After telling them of my plan, Kendel Cofell, Lawrence Beaver, and I, Betty Houghton, started out in Kendel's new Rolls Royce to see what the world had done to our classmates.

Kendel's Rolls Royce barely fitted into the metropolis of Winship, but we managed to stop and see Roger Kendall, who is now leader of the Winship first grade rhythm band. Traveling farther south and west our next stop was Cheyenne, Wyoming, where we were attracted by a rancher who looked as if he had gone berserk. Much to our surprise it was Bob Higgs, whose wife had just presented him with a pair of red-headed twins. Unfortunately Bev was still in the hospital and we were unable to see her.

After two flat tires we hit Seattle, and we took an afternoon off to watch TV at one of the local cafes. A handsome, smiling face stared out at us. Who should it be but our ever loving jokester Jack "Hammy" Helder. And get this Jack was announcer for Campbell's Soup!!! The next number on the TV show was Kenny Dockter, who just made a hit with his latest recording, "Bawl".

Leaving TV behind us we strolled out into the streets where we heard cries of "Extra! Extra!" Deciding to spend a nickel, we bought a paper. These headlines struck us: Stanley Kern, head man of the Alcatraz Ball and Chain Gang, had just failed at his last attempt to swim to the main land.

Leaving Stanley to his woe, we moved in on Southern California. As it was such a hot day we went to the beach for a swim. Wasn't that a familiar figure over there? Why it was Herb Wagner modeling men's bathing suits. After a short chat with Herb, we journeyed on.

Our destination was Dallas, Texas, where we met Marilyn Neumann. Famous for her trip to the moon, Marilyn was now preparing for her flight to Mars. By the way, Marilyn had developed a very distinctive Southern accent. She informed us that if we went down to the Power's Department Store, we would find Verna Kosel modeling the "poodle" hair cut.

Motoring on to Tampa, Florida, we found Bob Schonberger lounging in his club. He was slightly down hearted as his eighth wife had just divorced him. Bob had reached fame as an author; his latest book was "How To Keep A Wife".

Going on we cruised by Atlanta, Georgia, where we noticed that the Mrs. America contest was going on. We stopped in time to see our Lorna Maack crowned "Mrs. America". We talked to Lorna for a few minutes and she told us that JoAnne Heine is now Al Capp's model for the wolf gal.

Our next stop was the nation's capital where we found Peggy Hatfield as North Dakota's first Lady Senator. Grace Bell was visiting with Peggy. Grace was a famous hillbilly singer on station PU in Tennessee, starring with "The Churchkey Five".

New York was next on our list. Here we found Shirley Vick, the leading romantic actress on Broadway. Shirley informed us that Joyce Evans was her roommate and worked as hostess at the Stork Club. Passing the Madison Square Garden, we decided that as long as we had a few extra minutes we would go in. There we saw DeLores Nitschke, who had succeeded Barbara Ann Scott as figure skating champion.

Traveling on to Boston, we stopped at Vassar College, where we saw a familiar figure on the campus. It was none other than Norman Aman, who was professor of mathematics at the college. We talked with "First" for a few minutes before we started on our way to South Bend, Indiana. Here we found Don McShane, who is coaching football at Notre Dame. By the way Don talked, he was trying to raise his own football team.

Homeward bound we stopped in Chicago for supper at the "Argon", where we found Alfred Trautman. "Alfy", turning to music for his career, had succeeded Ralph Flanagan. Traveling farther west, we came to Minnesota, where we found Esther Schaller Griffin. After tiring of sailing the wide blue yonder, she and Marvin settled down to farming.

We hated to think of our trip ending, but we were now on our way home. We left Kendel in Aberdeen where he has succeeded his father-in-law as manager of the Capitol Lounge. After our long, but wonderful trip, Fat and I were happy to see Ellendale. Fat rushed right down to the Thompson Yards Lumber Company, which he now runs, to complete another baby crib—not for sale. He and Marilyn have quite a going concern. Now, thinking it was time to go home, who did I see but Newt Davis. Newt is now farming his father's place and has become very successful. The trip was now over, but our minds were still on our old classmates. Somehow we would see each other again soon.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of Ellendale High School, being of superior minds and possessing excellent physically fit bodies, do hereby will our glorious attributes to those who shall remain after our departure to brighter horizons.

Article I

To the juniors, we leave our full and uncontrolled use of the supply room and our severe cases of senioritis.

Article II

To the sophomores, we leave our characteristic wanderings through the halls of this haven of learning and a memory of our might as demonstrated on your initiation day.

Article III

To the freshmen, we leave our studious attitude and our records in extra-curricular activities.

Article IV

To the faculty, we wish to leave a bright and shining memory of us and our deeds.

Article V

We, the twenty-five seniors, bestow our individual bequests as follows:

- I, Norman Aman, leave my German accent to my sister, Mavis, hoping she will improve it.
- I, Lawrence Beaver, leave my fickle nature to Marilyn Hagel.
- I, Grace Bell, leave my operatic records to Karen McShane to jitterbug to.
- I, Kendal Cofell, leave my correspondence courses to James Billey as I'm sure he'll need the credits to graduate.
- I, Newton Davis, leave my Chevrolet to Mr. Shelver to be scientifically studied in comparison with his mighty Hudson.
- I, Kenneth Docktor, leave my math course at the NI to LaVerne Burlingame.
- I, Joyce Evans, leave my wit and humor to Kay Crabtree.

Me

- I, Beverley Gerdon, leave my red skirts to Patsy Fradet to go with her red hair.
- I, Peggy Hatfield, leave my unused arguments to anyone who can handle them.
- I, Jack Helder, leave my soup recipes to the home economics department.
- I, JoAnne Heine, leave my friendly "Hi"'s to Marlene Schaller.
- I, Bob Higgs, leave my extensive wardrobe to Myron Gerdon to supplement his own.
- I, Betty Houghton, leave my determined ways to Blondell Zimmerman.
- I, Roger Kendall, leave my impersonations to the junior class to use in their class play next year.
- I, Stanley Kern, leave my nickname, "Stub" to Eddie Nishek, as I seem to have outgrown it.
- I, Verna Kosel, leave my long tresses to Luella Hall to protect her ears from next year's chilling winds.
- I, Don McShane, leave my fighting spirit in football to Lorne Bobbe.
- I, Lorna Maack, leave my matronly roles in class plays to Evelyn Fleming.
- I, Marilyn Neumann, leave my ability to go to Aberdeen during school hours to Joan Retzlaff.
- I, DeLores Nitschke, leave my quiet and reserved nature to Doug Bell for obvious reasons.
- I, Esther Schaller, leave my coquettish ways to my sister, Harriet, to carry on where I left off.
- I, Bob Schonberger, leave my miniature pipe to Calvin Vick, to blow soap bubbles with.
- I, Alfred Trautman, leave my odd-jobs around school to Ned Leiby.
- I, Shirley Vick, leave my Rogues gallery to Dulcie Bell.
- I, Herbert Wagner, leave my scholastic record to Virgil DeWald.

2nd Row: Dora Uecker, Norman West, and Marion Zinter.

Junior Events

September 4th, 1951 rolled around, and thirty-four bright-eyed juniors took their proud positions two rows from the windows in Senior High.

Through the year the junior class sponsored a bake sale, a candy sale, sold Christmas cards, and ran a concession stand at the basketball games.

Under the direction of Miss Onsrud, the juniors presented the three act comedy, "Napolean Junior" on December 6th, 1951. The play was entertaining and financially successful.

On March 21, 1952 the class rings came. The juniors proudly wear them and now wait patiently for the day when they can turn their rings around and be full-fledged graduates of Ellendale High School.

On May 7th, 1952 came the climax of the year's work-the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. "Destination Moon" was the theme and the big gym was romantically arrayed in different shades of blue and silver with red accents. John Taylor and his orchestra provided the music.

Junior class officers this year were: Angela Heine, president; Constance Burow, vice-president; Dawn Combellick, secretary; and Marion Zinter, treasurer. Douglas Bell was class reporter. Miss Onsrud, as class advisor, guided us through a very big and successful year.

3rd Row: Adeline Veland, Larry Wilbur, JoAnn Woodward, Blondell Zimmerman, and Melvin Zinter.

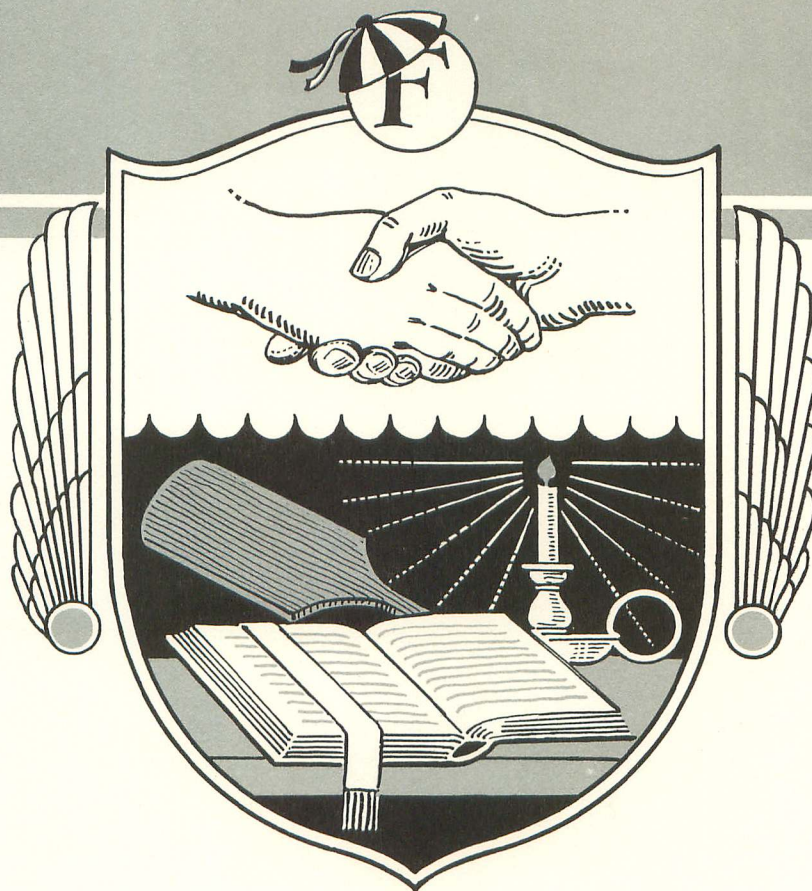

Sophomore Events

Forty-nine timid sophomores moved into Senior High on September 4th, 1952. They became official members September 8th by undergoing the initiation given by the mighty seniors of '52.

On December 18th the sophs held a Christmas party. They also launched a Valentine's party for all of Senior High.

The class officers for the year were: Delbert Nelson, president; Lowell Edwards, vice-president; Harlen Stahlecker, treasurer; and Blondell Zimmerman, secretary. Beth Ashmore was elected class reporter. The class advisor was Mr. Shelver.

After laboring hard all year, the sophomores are looking forward to next year when they, too, can pick up some of the reins of the school.

Freshman Events

The opening of school saw 40 green, but eager, freshmen ready to begin their first year of high school.

They elected Dick Schonberger class president. The second semester a committee took the place of class officers. The members of the committee were: Donald Anderson, chairman; Myron Gerdon; Margaret Ashmore; Michael Maunu; and James Brandenburger. Mr. Johnson acted as class advisor. Marie Kangus, the freshman cheerleader, moved to another town, and Margaret Ashmore and Kay Crabtree took their positions as cheerleaders.

The freshmen sponsored a party and invited the 8th grade. They made plans for another party, but they had to postpone it because of bad weather. They saved their money and had a big class picnic at the end of their first wonderful year in E.H.S.

HONORS

Honor Society

Membership in Keystone is based on four qualities: scholarship, leadership, character, and service. All students inducted into this society are members for life, or as long as they fulfill the requirements.

Ellendale High School's Keystone Society was organized in 1929; to date there are a total of one hundred and fifty members.

Esther Schaller became a member in her junior year, and Marilyn Neumann, Grace Bell, Shirley Vick, Peggy Hatfield, and Herbert Wagner became members in their senior year.

Angela Heine and James Billey of the junior class were inducted this year.

Senior Play

"The Imaginary Invalid", a three-act comedy-drama, was presented by the senior class on April 30, 1952.

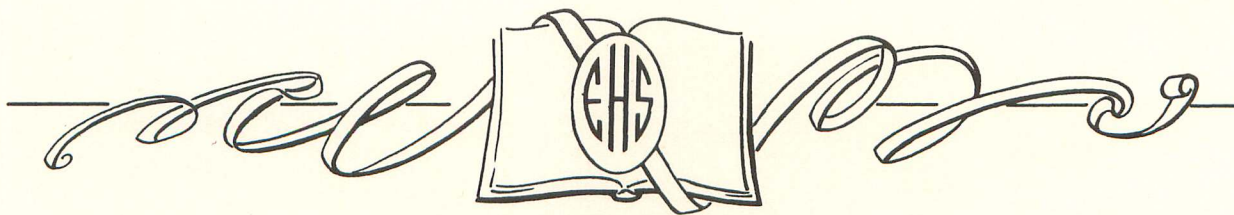

The play centered around Argon, the imaginary invalid, who thinks he has diseases too numerous to mention. His wife is trying to get all his money from him, and his doctors add to his woe by dreaming up new diseases for him every time he thinks he has a headache. Finally, Argon wakes up to the fact that he really isn't an invalid, and decides to become a doctor, to try to help people like himself, who think they are going to die any minute, yet aren't really ill.

The play was written by Moliere, the greatest French playwright of the seventeenth century. Much credit should be given to the director, Miss Mina C. Onsrud, who through her hard work made this production possible.

Junior Play

"Napoleon, Junior", a three act-comedy, was presented by the junior class on December 6, 1951.

The play centered around Henderson Ruggles, who is in the contracting business. He is meek and unassuming in his ways, and his family takes great advantage of this, keeping him on the verge of bankruptcy. Action begins when Henderson realizes that he has the spirit of Napoleon in him, and assuming the role of dictator, he finally establishes himself as head of the family.

Play Festival

The seventeenth annual Play Festival was held Monday evening, March 3, in the LaMoure Community Building at LaMoure. The senior class and one member of the fourth grade represented the Ellendale High School in presenting a one-act drama entitled "The Forgotten Man" by Jewell Bothwell Tull.

The play centers around the Man, the Christ spirit, who helps a poor little Jewish orphan find a home among a group of church members.

Those in the cast were:

John Benson, a minister	Robert Higgs
Henry Lambert, a church member	Newton Davis
Mrs. Lambert, his wife	Lorna Maack
Helen Mills, the organist	Esther Schaller

1951 Football History

During the first week of school the football boys, under Coach Clifford Isachsen, eagerly set to work with hard grueling practices, in preparation for their initial game of the 1951 season. The team selected Bob Higgs and Don McShane as their co-captains.

The first game of the season saw the Cardinals appear on their field against the Enderlin Eagles, who handed the Cards a 19 to 9 defeat. It was during this game that Bob Higgs was seriously injured, resulting in a serious operation and hospitalization for eight weeks.

The Oakes Tornadoes, our traditional rivals, journeyed to Ellendale for the next game of the season. Playing on their home field, the Cards handed the Tornadoes a 27 to 0 defeat.

In their last home game, the Cards met the ever-strong Lisbon team, who made the Redbirds bow with a 27 to 6 victory for the Bronchos.

The following week the Cards journeyed to Edgeley, where Ellendale was out-scored by the Rangers, 13 to 6.

The LaMoure Loboes, the conference champs, were Ellendale's opponents in the final game of the season. The Cards gave way to a 30 to 0 defeat.

During the 1951 season, the injury riddled Cardinals only managed to win their one game, but the success or failure of a football season is not altogether determined upon the number of games won, but rather upon the moral and sportsmanship of the team. In this respect the 1951 football season was a highly successful one for the Ellendale Cardinals.

The football banquet was given on Tuesday, December 11 by the football mothers. Mr. Ingvalson acted as Master of Ceremonies and Wayne Hill was guest speaker. At the banquet Gary Edwards and Frank Heitman were elected co-captains for the 1952 season.

Basketball Team

* Received letters.

The success of the 1951-52 Ellendale basketball team has not been measured by wins and losses. The team gained six victories, but each game was a success for the team, because they displayed the sportsmanship and courtesy which our whole high school can be proud.

Kulm took first place in the conference, while Lisbon and Enderlin took top honors in the District Tournament, which was held at Lisbon on March 6th, 7th, and 8th. The Cards dropped to 7th place in the tournament. They were handicapped by the loss of two of their regulars.

The cheering squad did a fine job of supporting its team all during the season. The cheering was loud and strong even when the team lost.

Our hats are off to the 1951-52 basketball team, coach, student manager, and cheering squad.

The season's schedule and scores are as follows:

1951 Track Team

The track prospects at Ellendale were again very favorable. The nucleus of the squad was composed of five returning lettermen: Dan Slemmons, Bob Higgs, Gary Edwards, Wayne Cherney, and Bruce Edwards. The remainder of the squad was rounded out with six other bright prospects: Don McShane, Jack Helder, Bruce Beaver, Harlen Stahlecker, Larry Hagen, and Raymond Pomplun. This year, as last, we had one of the state's best relay teams.

The team took part in three meets last spring. They were as follows: The N.I. Invitational, in which they took second; the district meet at Jamestown, and the State meet at Valley City.

Volley Ball

The girls' volleyball team played games with Edgeley and Oakes before they took part in the third annual Girls' Volleyball Tournament, which was held at Edgeley on March 25, 1952. LaMoure took first place by defeating Ellendale in the finals. Oakes and Edgeley took third and fourth places respectively.

A traveling trophy was purchased by the ELOE Association, which sponsored the tournament.

In Retrospect

We, the graduating class of '52 look back on four, full, and happy years of high school. We now have the privilege of walking down the aisle, with proud parents looking on, to receive our diplomas.

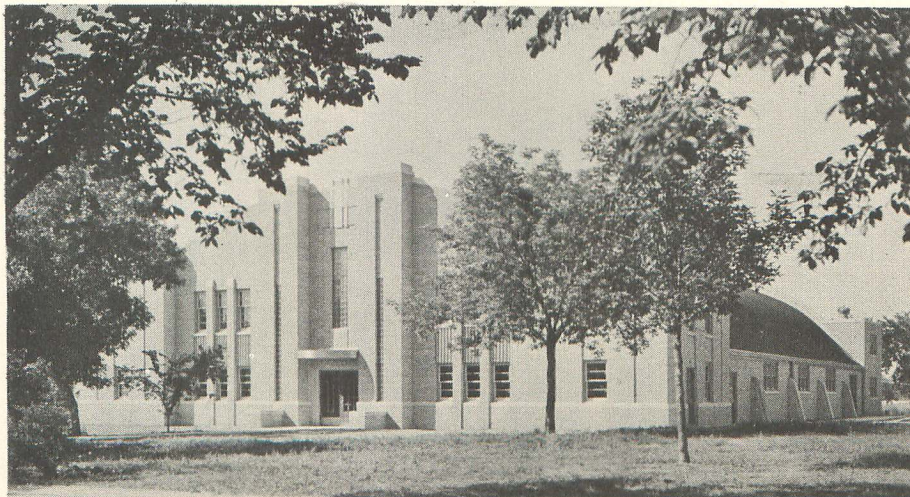

As freshmen, we were green but, oh, so happy and proud. We worked hard and played hard that year, and graduated into senior high.

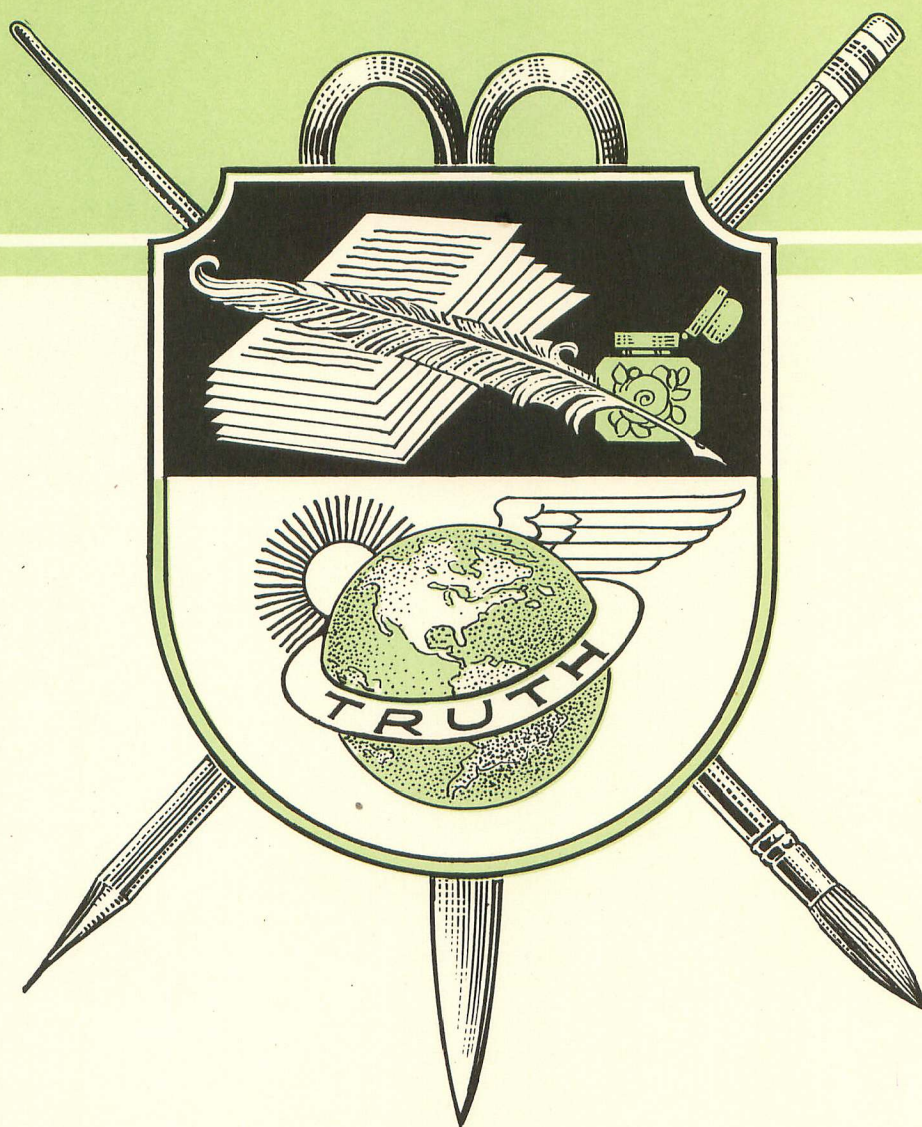

Being sophomores was even more enjoyable than being freshmen for we sat in the same study hall with the seniors whom we all idolized. Being initiated was a treat never to be forgotten.

Now, as graduating seniors, we proudly take one last look at those four glorious years and then turn our faces toward the future. We feel prepared to meet the future with faith in our country, faith in ourselves, and faith in our Father.

And so, with regret in our hearts and confidence in the future, we say good-bye to EHS where some of our happiest times were spent.
